

2014 Wayne County Grant Recipient Organizations

From helping hard-working families provide quality Pre-K for their children to being there in the harshness of winter with emergency fuel and furnace repairs, the United Way is at work every day in Wayne County. In fact, over the past eight years, the United Way has leveraged more than $800,000 to make a real, lasting impact for Wayne County residents. This includes over $400,000 awarded by a dedicated group of volunteers from Wayne County to dozens of community and human service organizations providing critical programs and services in Wayne County. Those funds come from workplace campaigns, corporate gifts, foundations and individuals—in short, from caring people just like you!

Thanks to you, the United Way continues to improve lives by funding programs and creating special initiatives that get to the heart of problems and create lasting changes right here in Wayne County. With your help, the United Way works with our partners to deliver programs and services that target community needs and provide the building blocks for a good life. Everyone deserves a quality EDUCATION that leads to stable employment, enough INCOME to support a family through all life's stages, sound mental and physical HEALTH and a solid safety net in times of crisis.

Thanks to the generosity of caring people like you, the United Way's Wayne County Fund Distribution committee—comprised entirely of volunteers who live and work in Wayne County—was pleased to award grants to the following Wayne County organizations:

- The Arc of NEPA
Advocacy Services
